

Szymon Piduch, candidate for a Member of the Company's Supervisory Board (2 July 2020) – curricula vitae

Szymon Piduch has been involved in the development of the Dino store chain since 2002. Until 2010 he was responsible for the Dino Group's finances, holding a number of posts in that time, including Chief Financial Officer. In March 2010, he was elected President of the Management Board. In the Company, he was responsible for expansion, investments and shop operations.

He started his professional career in 1995. In 1995-2002 he held a number of management positions for companies from the food sector, responsible for such areas as marketing, controlling and finances.

Szymon Piduch is a graduate of the Management and Marketing Department of the Poznań University of Economics, when he majored in business management. He also completed postgraduate studies in accounting at the same university.